This detailed map illustrates the Berner Oberland Pass network, connecting major Swiss cities like Bern, Thun, and Interlaken to numerous mountain resorts and lakes. The map uses color-coded lines to represent different transport modes: red for railways, yellow for buses, and black for cableways. Key locations include Bern, Thun, Spiez, Interlaken, Grindelwald, Lauterbrunnen, Wengen, and Zweisimmen. It also shows various mountain passes such as the Engelberg, Furka, and Simplon passes, along with numerous lakes and valleys. The map includes labels for neighboring regions like Aargau, Valais, and Italy.

This inset map provides a broader geographical context, showing the location of the Berner Oberland Pass within Switzerland. It highlights the region's proximity to major Swiss cities like Bern, Zurich, and Basel, as well as neighboring countries like France and Italy. The map also shows the location of the pass relative to the Swiss Alps and the Jura mountains.
